ELECTION DOUBTS VANISH.

President is Assured of Indorsement at the Polls.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—At the Cabinet meeting to-day there was a general discussion of the political situation. Encouraging reports from all directions have been received in the past few days, and the outlook gives the President and his advisers great confidence as to the result. The President had assurances from John D. Spreckles, before the Cabinet meeting, that California would certainly cast its vote for the Republican candidates.

There is a heavy defection in the Democratic ranks in California, and all over the state the Republicans are being strengthened by those who supported Bryan four years ago, but who are now enthusiastic expansionists.
Mr. Spreckles, who owns the San Francisco Call, predicted that the Republican majority of four years ago in California will be greatly exceeded this fall.

Washington, Oregon and Wyoming, which are benefiting immensely by the tremendous growth of trade with the Orient, like California, are Republican.

Advices from Indiana are that the state will give a large majority for the Republicans that has been expected, and that the record of four years ago will be exceeded. The state has been polled by the Republican managers, and it is placed in the McKinley column to stay.

From Kentucky comes the news that a majority of more than 25,000 for McKinley need surprise no one.
The Republican State Committee in moderation, claims a majority of 10,- 000. The Populists will vote the Re-

BICYCLE GIRLS

Are apt to overdo their strength. The rivalries of the road, the cheerful companionship, the exhilaration of the swift movement on the machine, all tend to make a woman unconsciously overtax herself. The results are often serious, and may affect the whole future of wifehood and motherhood.

Every woman who is conscious of feminine irregularities or disorders from strain or any other cause, should begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promptly corrects all female irregularity, dries the drains which are so debilitating, and tones the nervous system. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I had falling of internal organs and had to go to bed every month, had irregular monthly periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days," writes Mrs. Alice L. Holmes, of Coaling
St., Uniontown, Pa.
"I had also indigestion so bad that I could not eat anything hardly. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery cured me.
I took three bottles of the Favorite Prescription and one of the Golden Medical Discovery."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence private.
Address, Dr. R. V.
Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

publican ticket in Kentucky, and it is calculated that 6,000 Democratic votes, formerly cast for Bryan, will go to the Republicans. The only hope that the Democrats have to hold Kentucky is by fraud. The Republican National Committee reports Kansas sure for McKinley by 25,000 majority, while West Virginia, although assured for the Republican national ticket, is admittedly close on the Legislature.

Maryland has been taken out of the doubtful column and put on the Republican side. Illinois is not to suffer in the fight between Gov. Tanner and Senator Culom, as both factions have agreed to pull together and struggle for the senatorship after the Legislature is captured.

A reliable observer, who has been traveling west of the Mississippi river reports that the nineteen states out there which gave McKinley thirty-seven electoral votes will this year give the Republican ticket fifty nine.
This indicates a loss to Bryan of twenty-two electoral votes, and affords a margin that will overcome any possible defection in the East, where none is expected.

The general prosperity of the West and approval of the administration's foreign policy has caused this decided change of political sentiment. The wool interests are particularly strong for the Republican party, where the price of wool has doubled under the protection policy.

Colorado, Utah, Idaho and Montana, being in the control of the silver mining and smelting trust, have kept free silver as the paramount issue.

The Fall of Babylon,

"Now, children," said the Sunday school teacher, "which of you can tell me why Babylon fell?"

There was a long silence, says the Chicago Times-Herald. The little ones bent over and looked at one another and drew long breaths, but none of them said anything.

"Come, come!" the teacher exclaimed at length. I surprised! Isn't there any little boy or girl in this class who can tell why Babylon fell?
Isn't there any one of you can think of any reason why Babylon should have fallen?"

Then a boy with large brown freckles on the bridge of his nose and a thumb with a blackened nail put up his hand.

"Ah! the sweet faced teacher said:
"I thought some of you must know, if you only stopped to think. What was it, Percy?"

"Mebby he stepped on a banana peel," Percy suggested.

BY A GOOD MAJORITY

Yerkes Will be Elected
Says Senator Lindsay

THE MACHINE IS REPUDIATED.

Declares He Will Not Support
Bryan and Beckham.

United States Senator William Lin-say has decided to vote the straight Republican ticket in the coming election. He said, in an interview, that the Beckhams were planning to steal the coming election, and that he could not lend his support to such a party.

Upon being asked to give an opinion as to the political outlook, and to say what were, in his opinion, the merits of the candidates of the two parties, he said:

"The prospects are that Yerkes will be elected by a good majority, and the chances are in favor for the electoral vote being cast for McKinley. The danger is that the decision of the people may be nullified through manipulations of our State electoral system."

"It is now plain that the controlling managers of the so called Democratic organization at no time intended that a fair election law should be enacted, and that the General Assembly was convened in extra session with no such expectation on their part."

"The methods resorted to last year may again be utilized for the defeat of the public will, but the people are fully aroused and no effort will be spared to secure a free vote and an honest count."

"The majority in favor of Yerkes cannot be overcome except by the most flagrant disregard of law and common decency, and it is to be hoped that election officers cannot be found willing to assume the responsibility for the necessary frauds."

"There is no question of party or

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urines too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy.
The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one dollar bottles, and may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer party politics in this year's issue in Kentucky. The question with us is whether majorities or minorities are to govern. Every voter who believes in the Jeffersonian doctrine of absolute acquiescence in the decisions of majority, owes it to himself and to the State to vote for Yerkes, to insure the defeat of the representatives of the law delaying organization now controlling the executive department of our State government.

"Mr. Bryan has and deserves no better standing in Kentucky than Mr.
Beckham."

"He not only gave his influence and advocacy to the ticket fraudulently nominated by the Music Hall convention, but when it was defeated at the polls came to the capital of the State and encouraged the defeated candidates in their contest for the State offices, and so far forgot the proprieties of his high position as to congratulate the contestants on the political complexion of the courts by which their contests were to be tried and decided."

"If the people of the country have come to regard the courts of Kentucky as more or less governed by political considerations in the administration of the law, we are as much indebted to Mr. Bryan for that unfortunate fact as to any other man."

"Kentucky ought to repudiate both Beckham and Bryan, and with a fair and free election and an honest count will repudiate both."

"It is by no means pleasant to those who in State and national elections have never voted for any other than old-fashioned Democrats to actively participate in the work of repudiation, but there are times when fidelity to party, and especially to a mere party name, is disloyalty to free institutions and to Republican government. We have one of those experiences on us now, and I believe that the real Democrats of Kentucky will show themselves equal on the occasion."

ONE CASE OF MANY.

A Workingman Tells Why
He No Longer Believes in Bryan.

A prominent citizen whose name is known throughout and beyond Indiana asked a carpenter whom he knew how he was getting on. His reply was that he had had all the employment he could ask for at good wages the past three years, and he volunteered the remark that full employment was quite general and the times were much better now than they were before 1897. "If this is the case," asked the citizen, "why are so many mechanics reported to be following Mr. Bryan again?" Thereupon the carpenter replied: "I voted for Mr. Bryan in 1896; I was led to believe that it was the best thing I could do for myself and family. Before that election I had seen dreary days. I could get little work, my wife and children were in need, and I was forced to ask friends for temporary relief. Since the summer of 1897 I have had full employment, and I am able to support my family in comfort. During 1896 I got a day's work now and then, but I had little to take in my dinner pail. Now I have a square meal, and my children do not go to school hungry. This came after the election of McKinley. I have come to think that it will stay if McKinley is elected again. At any rate I am going to vote for him, and others like myself whom I know will do the same thing. We'd be fools if we didn't."

This was an actual conversation.
Anti-imperialism, militarism and trusts will not move the class of voters. No tomfoolery about forsaking the Declaration of Independence will beguile such voters. The know two things: For three years before the election of McKinley the wolf had his nose in the door of their abode, wife and children were in rags and were often hungry, while the bread-winner walked the streets in vain for employment. This was one thing they knew; the other thing is that with McKinley came full employment, good wages and all that good wages mean to honorable men who have families. Thousands of such men are for McKinley in 1900 who were for Bryan in 1896. Those who think otherwise will find themselves mistaken before the middle of November.—Indianapolis Journal.

A new short story by Robert Barr, entitled "The Wizard of Wall Street," in Everybody's Magazine for November, has never been exceeded in its quality of interest by anything from the pen of that popular writer. In its conception of certain Wall Street types, it is peculiarly true to life. "Kuang Hsu, Emperor of China," is the title of an illustrated article which deals with the personal side of that almost unknown personality, and which clearly explains the underlying causes of the Emperor's learning towards Western civilization and of his evident desire to adopt measures of sweeping reform in his Empire. A story on tramp life, entitled "A Dead One," is remarkably impressive, while the philosophy of this creature of the Under World is most entertaining. The hardships and dangers to which fishermen off "The Banks" are constantly exposed, are vividly described by Captain H. D. Smith of the U. S.

Revenue Cutter Service, in an article fittily entitled "Whed Death Rides on the Waters." "A Tale of the Gridiron Field" is a lively story of seasonable interest and, like all the other sixteen stories and articles in this month's issue, it more than well repays the reader for his ten cent investment.

When the flowers have decayed.

You shall see his toys and his empty

And the horse he used to ride; And they all shall speak with a silent age. The drains on my system were weakening my brain as well as my sexual and nervous sys-electric belts and patent medicines. Some helped me, none cured. I was giving up in despair, infact, contemplating suicide when a friend advised me as a last resort to give the New Method Treatment of Drs. K. & K. a fair trial. Without confidence I consented and in three months I was a cured man. I was cured
